Greetings from the Governor

June 22, 2011

I am pleased to extend warm greetings to all of those attending the 2011 King County Bar Association (KCBA) Annual Awards Dinner. Congratulations on 125 years of justice, professionalism, and service!

I applaud KCBA for its ongoing work to support its members and promote a just and accessible legal system. KCBA has been an invaluable resource for King County and our state as a whole, and I am certain that the KCBA family will continue to provide exemplary service and leadership in the years ahead.

I would also like to take this opportunity to congratulate tonight's honorees: Thomas E. Kelly, Jr., The Honorable Susan R. Agid, Ret., J. Richard Manning, Jamila A. Johnson, and William D. Braun. Each of them has made outstanding contributions to the field of law and the administration of justice, and I hope you will all be inspired by their example.

Again, thank you for your many years of service, and please accept my best wishes for a memorable time of celebration and continued success in the years ahead.

Sincerely,

Christine O. Gregoire
Governor
