RE: The Bar Bulletin

How Does the Bar Bulletin Get Information?

The Bar Bulletin depends on you for information about your activities. When your Section or Committee is working on something of general interest, when you plan a meeting or an activity that you would like publicized, please let me know.

The best way to do this is by e-mail at gbarton@karrtuttle.com. Since we have no paid reporters, it is especially helpful if you write a brief article or announcement in Microsoft word and e-mail it to me as an attachment.

If you prefer to have someone else report on a compelling issue that you are entrenched in, let me know and I may be able to find someone else to cover the story. But the best advice is this: if you want it covered, cover it yourself and, if it is related to KCBA work, it will almost certainly run in the next available issue.

Why Did They Do That? Why Didn't They Cover This?

I very much welcome your comments and suggestions for improvements. We produce thematic issues, we have periodic debates regarding topics of concern to the local bar and we have a new column that provides KCBA members with "The Law Behind the News." If you have ideas for themes, debates, stories or anything else, please let me know. If there is something besides your own committee activities that you would like to write about, please let me know. We welcome any and all contributions.

When Can I Send Information?

Your feedback is welcome anytime. However, if you want to get something in the next issue, you need to do so before the 10th of the month. It is also helpful if you let me know ahead of time that something is in the works and I can save space for you. The basic deadline is the 10th of the month preceding the next issue date.

I am a Busy Person, How Can I Remember the Bar Bulletin's Deadlines?

If you would like to receive a monthly reminder of Bar Bulletin deadlines and themes, please send me an e-mail asking to be on the Bar Bulletin Reminder List.

How Do I Send Information?

The best way to do this is by a Microsoft Word document e-mailed to me as an attachment at gbarton@karrtuttle.com. I cannot edit a PDF.

Thank you for your commitments. I look forward to working with each of you in the coming year.
