

King County
District Court

February 10, 2017

Greetings:

King County District Court is pleased to announce that the Court is seeking letters of interest from those attorneys who would like to attend our Judge Pro Tempore training class and serve the Court as a Judge Pro Tempore. Interested attorneys are invited to send an email of interest to Todd Bandazy at todd.bandazy@kingcounty.gov. To be considered for the upcoming pro tem class, an attorney must be an active member in good standing with the Washington State Bar Association, have a minimum of five years of civil or criminal experience as a practicing attorney, and have a currently sitting King County District Court Judge as a sponsor. King County District Court encourages applicants of diverse backgrounds to apply.

Thank you for your interest in serving King County District Court.

Sincerely,

Todd Bandazy
King County District Court
