2009 Election Debates

Seattle City Attorney September 17, 12:00pm - 1:30pm

As the chief legal officer for the City of Seattle, the City Attorney serves a critically important role in our community. Responsibilities for this position range from serving as the city's prosecutor to providing legal advice and representation to every department in the city. In addition, the City Attorney manages almost a hundred attorneys on his staff. KCBA is pleased to host candidates Thomas Carr and Peter Holmes for an informative debate that will explore their priorities for the office and their analysis of the many legal issues facing the city.

Seattle Public Library, 1000 4th Ave., Seattle
Wright & Ketchum Room, Level 4, Room 2

King County Executive September 22, 12:00pm - 1:30pm

The King County Executive leads the executive branch of our regional government, ensuring that critical public services are offered including public health, law enforcement, regional parks, sewage, and public transit. The Executive works closely with our judges, prosecutors, and defenders in ensuring that we provide equal justice for the almost 2 million residents of the county. KCBA is grateful that candidates Dow Constantine and Susan Hutchison have agreed to debate each other about their views on the county's justice system.

Rainier Tower, 1301 5th Ave., Seattle, Conference Center

These are free events, but space is limited, so please RSVP to executivedirector@kcba.org to reserve a seat. We will also stream these two debates live on our website at www.kcba.org.
