Building a Book of Business

For Attorneys of Color

Wednesday, March 30, 2016

6:00-8:00pm

Forsberg & Umlauf, P.S.

901 Fifth Avenue, Suite 1400, Seattle

KCBA's Diversity Committee is proud to host this annual seminar designed to give recently admitted attorneys of color the skills they need to advance in their careers. This unique program is a closed door session where you will learn to effectively market yourself and acquire new clients for your firm. You'll gain valuable networking contacts and receive guidance from some of the most highly respected and successful leaders in our region's minority bar community.

Presenters:

Gabriel S. Galanda (Galanda Boardman, PLLC)

Daniel Gandara (Vandenberg Johnson & Gandara, LLP)

Marcia Fujimoto (Miller Nash Graham & Dunn, LLP)

Moderator:

Russell M. Aoki (Aoki Law, PLLC)

There is no cost for this seminar. Dinner will be provided courtesy of Forsberg & Umlauf, P.S. Space is extremely limited - please contact Sophie Petersen via email (sophiep@kcba.org) for registration details.
