BLAINE HARDEN is an American author and journalist. His most recent book is The Great Leader and the Fighter Pilot (2015). It's about the rise of the tyrant who created North Korea and a young fighter pilot who stole his way to freedom with the help of a Russian made MiG-15. For 28 years, Blaine worked for The Washington Post as a correspondent in Africa, Eastern Europe and Asia, as well as in New York and Seattle. For four years, he was a local and national correspondent for The New York Times and a writer for Times Magazine. He has also reported for PBS Frontline, The Economist, Foreign Policy, National Geographic and the Guardian. Gonzaga University awarded him an honorary doctorate in 2015.
